Introduction

This report (the “Report on Remuneration” or the “Report”), approved by the board of directors (the “Board of Directors”) of Be Think, Solve, Execute S.p.A. (“Be” or the “Company”) on 15 March 2018, on the proposal of the Company’s appointments and remuneration committee (the “Appointments and Remuneration Committee”) which met on the same date, has been drawn up in accordance with the provisions of art. 123-ter of Italian Legislative Decree 58/95 (the “Consolidated Law on Finance”) and of art. 84-quater of the regulation adopted by Consob with resolution no. 11971/99 (the “Issuers’ Regulation”) and in accordance with Attachment 3A, Diagrams 7-bis and 7-ter, to the Issuers’ Regulation.

The remuneration policy (the “Remuneration Policy”) has been adopted by the Company in compliance with the provisions set forth in the regulations on related party transactions adopted by Consob with resolution no. 17221 of 2010 (the “Consob RPT Regulations”), as implemented in the procedure adopted in this regard by the Company, available on the Company’s website.

The Report on Remuneration is organised into the following sections:

- (a) Section I, which illustrates the Remuneration Policy drawn up by the Company on the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and the procedures used for the adoption and implementation of said policy; in compliance with the provisions of art. 123-ter of the Consolidated Law on Finance, this Section will be submitted to the consultative vote of the Shareholders’ Meeting convened on first call for 24 April 2018, and on second call for 26 April 2018;
- (b) Section II, which by name for the fees paid to the Company’s Directors and Statutory Auditors:
 - a. provides an adequate description of the items that comprise the remuneration, including the amounts envisaged in the event that the office of the same is terminated or their employment with the company is terminated;
 - b. analytically illustrates the fees paid in 2017 (the “Financial Year”), under any title and in any form, by the Company and by subsidiary and associated companies, which relate to activities performed in previous years to that of reference and also indicating the fees to be paid in one or more future years for activities performed in the Financial Year, if possible indicating an estimated amount for components that cannot objectively be quantified in said Financial Year.

The Report also contains an indication of the equity investments held in the Company’s share capital by members of the Board of Directors and of the Board of Statutory Auditors of Be (the “Board of Statutory Auditors”), as well as by spouses that are not legally separated and by children (minors), directly or through subsidiaries, trust companies or third parties, in compliance with the provisions of Art. 84-quater, paragraph 4, of the Issuers’ Regulation.

The Company has not engaged any independent experts to draw up the Remuneration Policy.

This Report on Remuneration is made available to the public at the Company’s registered office, through the authorised transmission and storage mechanism SDIR-NIS/NIS-Storage and on the Company’s website <https://www.be-tse.it>, section “Corporate Governance”.

1. Section One

1.1. Process for the preparation, approval and implementation of the Remuneration Policy

The following main Parties/Bodies are involved in the preparation, approval and implementation of the Remuneration Policy:

- the Shareholders' Meeting;
- the Board of Directors;
- the Appointments and Remuneration Committee;
- the Executive Directors;
- the Board of Statutory Auditors.

Shareholders' Meeting

As regards remuneration, the Shareholders' Meeting:

- establishes the fee of each member of the Board of Directors; it may also establish, pursuant to the articles of association, a total amount for the remuneration of all Directors. Said fees are established at a sufficient amount to attract, maintain and motivate people with the professional qualities required to successfully manage the Company;
- provides a consultative, non-binding opinion, on the annual remuneration-report approved by the Board of Directors on the proposal of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee;
- receives adequate information on the implementation of remuneration policies;
- resolves on any remuneration plans based on shares or other financial instruments addressed to Directors, employees and consultants, including therein Executives with strategic responsibilities, pursuant to Art. 114-bis of the Consolidated Law on Finance.

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors:

- establishes an Appointments and Remuneration Committee within the Board. A committee member must possess adequate knowledge and experience in financial matters and pay policies; the assessment of the party's competences is made by the Board of Directors at the time of appointment;
- on the proposal of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, draws up the Remuneration Policy for members of the management body. The Remuneration Policy establishes the guidelines that all corporate bodies involved must comply with when establishing the remuneration of management body members and specifically of Executive Directors, of other Directors in specific positions, as well as executives with strategic responsibilities, where said exist. These guidelines are illustrated herein;

- approves the Annual Report on Remuneration to be submitted to the Annual Shareholders' Meeting;
- on the proposal of or following the opinion of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, it establishes, on the basis of the guidelines established by the Remuneration Policy and, in any event, following the opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors, the remuneration of the Executive Directors and of other Directors with specific positions; it prepares, with the assistance of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, any remuneration plans based on shares or other financial instruments and submits them to the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to Art. 114-bis of the Consolidated Law on Finance;
- implements any remuneration plans based on shares or other financial instruments on the mandate of the Shareholders' Meeting.

Appointments and Remuneration Committee

In accordance with the provisions of Art. 2.2.3, paragraph 3, letter n) of the regulations for the markets organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A. ("Borsa Italiana"), applicable to issuers with shares traded on the electronic stock market organised and managed by Borsa Italiana, STAR Segment, as well as in compliance with the provisions of Art. 6 of the code of self-regulation for listed companies, adopted by the corporate governance committee of Borsa Italiana (the "Code of Self-Regulation"), the Company's Board of Directors has established an internal Appointments and Remuneration Committee, which performs the committee functions for appointment set forth in Principle 5 of the Code of Self-Regulation, and the committee functions for remuneration set forth in Principle 6 of the same code.

Functions

The Appointments and Remuneration Committee:

- submits proposals or provides opinions to the Board of Directors on the remuneration of the Executive and Non-Executive Directors and of other Directors in specific positions, as well as on correctly identifying and setting adequate performance objectives, which permit the variable component of their pay to be calculated;
- makes proposals to the Board of Directors on the adoption of the Remuneration Policy;
- assists the Board of Directors in preparing and implementing any remuneration plans based on shares or other financial instruments;
- periodically assesses the adequacy and the effective implementation of the Remuneration Policy, and uses information provided by Executive Directors if the assessment regards the remuneration of executives with strategic responsibilities, where said exist;
- makes any manner of proposal on remuneration to the Board of Directors;
- monitors the application of the decisions adopted by the Board of Directors relating to remuneration, assessing, inter alia, the effective achievement of performance targets;

- reports to the shareholders on how it exercises its functions; to this end, the attendance of the Chairman of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee or of another committee member at the Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

Composition

During the Financial Year, the composition of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee underwent several changes, given (i) the expiry of the mandate of the board appointed with a resolution of the shareholders' meeting on 12 June 2014, and whose mandate ended on 27 April 2017 and (ii) the consequent appointment of the Board of Directors currently in office, appointed with a resolution of the shareholders' meeting on 27 April 2017 (the "Committee in Office").

More specifically, up until 27 April 2017, the date of appointment of the Board of Directors currently in office, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee was comprised by the following non-executive Directors, the majority of which were independent: Cristina Spagna (who acted as Chairperson of the committee), the non-executive Director Claudio Berretti and the independent Director Umberto Quilici (the "Terminated Committee").

Following the appointment of the Board of Directors currently in office, approved by the Shareholders' Meeting on 27 April 2017, on 27 April 2017 the Board of Directors renewed the composition of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, appointing the independent Director Cristina Spagna (who acts as the chairperson of the committee), the non-executive Director Claudio Berretti and the independent Director Davide Dattoli as members of the same (the "Committee in Office").

During the Financial Year, the Terminated Committee held a meeting, attended by Cristina Spagna and Umberto Quilici; during said meeting, the Committee, inter alia: (a) ascertained the accrual of the variable components for the Financial Year for Directors in specific positions; (b) assessed the activities performed by the committee during 2016; (c) approved the report on remuneration under art. 123-ter of the Consolidated Law on Finance; (d) approved the wording of the annual report on corporate governance and ownership structures under art. 123-bis of the Consolidated Law on Finance with regard to the areas in the scope of said committee; and (e) approved the draft guidance report for shareholders regarding the size and the composition of the Board of Directors for the three-year period 2017-2019.

During the Financial Year, the Committee held 4 meetings. The meetings lasted an average of 31 minutes and the attendance level was 83%. More specifically, the attendance level of Cristina Spagna was 100%, that of Claudio Berretti was 75% and that of Davide Dattoli was 75%. During said meetings, the Committee, inter alia, (a) took decisions regarding the fixed component of the remunerative structure of Directors in specific positions; (b) made a proposal to the Board of Directors regarding an incentive plan for the top management of the Be group (the "Group"); (c) assessed the adequacy, the overall coherence and the effective implementation of the remuneration policy adopted by the Company; and (d) examined the activities planned for 2018.

Minutes were regularly drawn up of meetings of the Terminated Committee and of the Committee in Office.

The committee Chairperson informed the Board of Directors, at the first possible meeting, on the meetings of said committee and on the matters that were discussed, in accordance with the provisions of the implementing criteria 4.C.1, lett. d) of the Code of Self-Regulation.

In the current year, on the date of this Report, one meeting of the Committee in Office has already taken place.

Non-members also attended meetings of the Terminated Committee and of the Committee in Office, without voting rights, on the invitation of the committee in question and with regard to specific items on the agenda. The Statutory Auditors also attended these meetings, again without voting rights.

Directors must refrain from attending committee meetings in which proposals are made to the Board of Directors regarding their remuneration.

Executive Directors

The Executive Directors:

- provide the Appointments and Remuneration Committee with all useful information so that the same may assess the adequacy and effective application of the Remuneration Policy, with specific regard to the remuneration of executives with strategic responsibilities, where said exist;
- establish the remuneration of executives with strategic responsibilities, where said exist, on the basis of the guidelines established by the Remuneration Policy.

Board of Statutory Auditors

With regard to remuneration, the Board of Statutory Auditors plays an advisory role insofar as it issues the opinions required by the law in force; specifically, the Board of Statutory Auditors issues an opinion on proposals for the remuneration of Executive Directors and of other Directors in specific positions; when issuing its opinion, it verifies the coherence of the proposals with the Remuneration Policy.

1.2. Purpose, principles and process for the definition and approval of the Remuneration Policy

The purpose of the Remuneration Policy is to attract, motive and retain resources, who possess the professional qualities required to successfully pursue the Company's objectives. Another purpose of the Policy is to align the interests of management with those of its shareholders, pursuing a primary objective of creating value in the medium-long term, by establishing a strong link between pay and individual performance.

The Remuneration Policy is submitted to the approval of the Board of Directors by the Appointments and Remuneration Committee. When drawing up said Policy, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee has the faculty to access information and to involve the company functions needed to perform its tasks. It involves Human Resources and Organisation Management and also uses the services of independent experts in this field, to the extent of that approved by the Board of Directors and that envisaged by the Code of Self-Regulation.

On the proposal of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, the Board of Directors draws up and adopts the Remuneration Policy within its organisation and as part of internal regulations, and specifically, establishes the content relating to the remuneration policy for members of management bodies and incentive plans. Furthermore, with regard to establishing the remuneration of Directors in specific positions, the Board of Directors takes the prior opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors into consideration. Once the Board of Directors has examined and approved the Remuneration Policy, it submits it to the vote of the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Remuneration Policy, as approved in this way by the Board of Directors, is therefore able to pursue the medium-long term interests of Be. More specifically, the variable part of remuneration of Executive Directors accounts for a significant percentage of the total remuneration of the same, also with relation to the fixed component. Furthermore, a large share of the variable part is linked to the achievement of specific and strategic objectives related to the Company's performance, such as for example EBIT, a financial indicator that is clearly perceived by the market. Lastly, coherence with the long-term objectives pursued by the Company is also guaranteed by the manner in which the variable part of the remuneration of the Executive Directors is paid, based on thresholds corresponding to the performance objectives achieved. Consequently, if all performance objectives are reached, the entire maximum amount of variable remuneration will be paid; on the contrary, if none of the performance objectives are achieved, no variable remuneration will be paid.

The gross annual remuneration of non-executive Directors, on the other hand, is not linked to the achievement of economic results and instead, reflects the commitment required of each of the same for the fulfilment of their role.

In the light of the specific characteristics of the pay packages envisaged, in particular for Executive Directors as illustrated in Paragraph 1.4 of this report, the Board of Directors has decided not to set in place any contractual arrangements whereby the Company could request the return of all or part of the variable components of remuneration paid, or withhold deferred amounts, established on the basis of figures that were later found to be incorrect.

To define Be's remuneration policy, reference was not made to the remuneration policies of other companies.

1.3. The remuneration of Directors

Terminated Board

Up until the date of the Shareholders' Meeting convened to approve the financial statements for the year ending 31 December 2016, the Board of Statutory Auditors had been comprised by members appointed with a resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting on 12 June 2014 (the "Terminated Board"):

- Antonio Taverna - Chairman;
- Stefano Achermann - Chief Executive Officer;
- Carlo Achermann - Executive Director;
- Claudio Berretti - Non-Executive Director;
- Bernardo Attolico - Non-Executive Director;
- Cristina Spagna - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Umberto Quilici - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Anna Zattoni - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Anna Lambiase - Non-Executive Director;

The remuneration awarded to Non-Executive members of the Terminated Board, for their position as Directors for the part of the Financial Year in which they were in office, was resolved by the Board of Directors' Meeting held on 1 July 2014 as follows:

- Euro 20,000.00 per each member of the Terminated Board, plus Euro 10,000.00 for those that held the position of Chairman of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee and Chairman of the Control and Risk Committee;
- Euro 100,000.00 for the Chairman of the Terminated Board.

No specific fee was envisaged for participation in Committees - with the exception of the Chairpersons of the Control and Risk Committee and Appointments and Remuneration Committee as specified above - or for the performance of specific assignments not associated to operational mandates; the remuneration of Directors therefore already covered the commitment related to participation in the Committees established within the Terminated Board and reflected the commitment required.

No variable component of the fee of Non-Executive Directors was linked to the economic results of the Company. Instead, an insurance policy was in place as regards the third-party liability of management bodies (in addition to General Managers, where appointed, and to Executives with strategic responsibilities, where present) when exercising their functions, for the purpose of holding the beneficiaries and the Company harmless from charges resulting from the relative compensation, with the exclusion of malice and gross negligence.

Board in Office

At a session on held on 27 April 2017, the Shareholders' Meeting appointed the following as Director:

- Carlo Achermann - Executive Chairman;
- Stefano Achermann - Chief Executive Officer;
- Paola Tavigliani - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Claudio Berretti - Non-Executive Director;
- Gianluca Antonio Ferrari - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Cristina Spagna - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Umberto Quilici - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member (resigned on 19.07.2017);
- Alberto Mocchi - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member (to replace Umberto Quilici from 19.07.2017);
- Davide Dattoli - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member;
- Anna Lambiase - Non-Executive Director, Independent Board Member.

On the same date, the Shareholders' meeting resolved to give a total annual fee of Euro 20,000.00 to each Director, to be calculated on a pro rata basis with relation to the period of the financial year for which each member of the Board of Directors held the relative office. Said fee does not take into account any further emoluments (for example, those relating to positions held within the Board of Directors, namely the positions of member or Chairperson of internal board committees), which have been approved by the Board of Directors, following consultation with the Board of Statutory Auditors, in addition to the total annual fee established for each Director by the Shareholders' Meeting, pursuant to Art. 2389, paragraph 3 of the Italian Civil Code.

More specifically, also at the meeting held on 27 April 2017, the Board of Directors resolved to pay Directors holding the position of Chairperson of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee and Chairperson of the Control and Risk Committee an annual amount of Euro 10,000.00 in addition to the above-mentioned fee of Euro 20,000.00. With regard to the remuneration resolved for Executive Directors, please refer to Paragraph 1.4 below.

No specific fee is envisaged for participation in Committees - with the exception of the Chairpersons of the Control and Risk Committee and Appointments and Remuneration Committee - or for the performance of specific assignments not associated to operational mandates; the remuneration of Directors therefore already covers the commitment related to participation in the Committees established within the Board of Directors and reflect the commitment required.

A variable component of the fee of Non-Executive Directors is linked to the economic results of the Issuer. An insurance policy is in place as regards the third-party liability of management bodies (in addition to general managers, where appointed, and to Executives with strategic responsibilities, where present) when exercising their functions, for the purpose of holding the beneficiaries and the Company harmless from charges resulting from the relative compensation, with the exclusion of malice and gross negligence.

1.4. The Remuneration of Executive Directors

From a legal and statutory perspective, the remuneration of the Company's Executive Directors is established on the basis of the procedures set forth in Art. 2389, paragraph 3 of the Italian Civil Code, which envisages that "The remuneration of directors in specific positions in compliance with the articles of association is established by the board of directors, subject to the opinion of the board of statutory auditors" as well as in compliance with following specific criteria applied:

- the coherence between the elements underlying the calculation of the fee and the objectives set;
- the correct balance between the fixed component and the variable component as a function of the strategic objectives and the risk management policy of the Company, also considering the business segment in which it operates and the characteristics of the business it is actually engaged in;
- the fixed component should be sufficient to remunerate the contribution of the Executive Director if the variable component is not paid due to failure to reach the performance objectives set by the Board of Directors;
- the advance establishment of performance objectives, namely of economic results and of any other specific objectives to which the payment of the variable components is linked, measurable and related to the creation of value for the shareholders over a medium-long term horizon, in this specific case, 36 months;
- the link between the variation of the results achieved and the variation of the remuneration guaranteed through a remuneration scale which varies from a minimum (usually zero) and a maximum related to a scale of objectives;
- the delay in the payment of the annual variable component of remuneration of several months with respect to the time of accrual in order to allow proper company risk management to be carried out with regard to the Company's Remuneration Policy.

From a remuneration policy perspective, the remuneration of Executive Directors is usually comprised by the following components:

- an annual gross fixed component;

- a variable component linked to pre-set, measurable objectives, related to the creation of value for the shareholders over a time horizon usually not less than twelve months and up to 36 months. Given the nature of the company's business, the Board of Directors, on one hand, decided that a time horizon of twelve months enables targets to be set that are sufficiently coherent with the trends of the market in which the Company operates and in line with a prudential risk management policy, and, on the other hand, it also decided that, in terms of a criterion that is less linked to the economic cycle and more to the sustainability and stability of performance, as well as in keeping with the recommendations on the variable remuneration of directors and top managers of listed companies, a significant part of the variable component should be linked to medium-long term objectives (36 months). The payment of the variable component is delayed with respect to the time of accrual - as subject to the approval of the annual financial statements by the Shareholders' Meeting - in order to allow proper company risk management to be carried out with regard to the Company's Remuneration Policy.

When establishing the remuneration and the components of the same, the Board of Directors takes the following into account (i) the specific content of the delegations of power assigned to individual Executive Directors and/or (ii) the functions and the role actually fulfilled by individual Executive Directors within the Company, thus ensuring that the proportion of the variable component is consistent with the nature of the tasks assigned to the same and defined by the Board of Directors on the basis of the following criteria:

- establishment of the target profit margin (EBT), as defined at the time of approval of the annual budget, setting a minimum threshold for the result to be achieved below which the objective is not considered to have been reached, and a maximum threshold;
- establishment of any additional specific objectives for the Executive Directors and/or the other Directors in specific positions, who hold specific roles within the organisation of the Group's operations;
- quantification of the bonus up to a maximum set amount, dependent on to what extent the objective is achieved.

With regard to the variable components of remuneration of Executive Directors, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee proposes the objectives to the Board of Directors and the following year checks performance to verify whether the objectives set the previous year were achieved.

Based on the above principles, the 2017 annual variable incentive plan was linked to reaching the pre-set profit margin (EBT) target for the whole Group and the remuneration was calculated according to a performance scale of 80-120 (below 80% of target EBT, the remuneration is zero). The variable incentive plan was linked to reaching at least 80% of the target EBT of the 2017-2019 Business Plan and also in this case, the remuneration was calculated according to a performance scale of 80-120 (below 80% of target EBT, the remuneration is zero).

From an accounting perspective, the remuneration of Executive Directors is recognised in the financial statements of the year in which the Directors served, both as regards the annual gross fixed components and the variable component, unless there are conditions precedent which defer payment.

The Appointments and Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors may respectively assess and approve the payment of any further fees to be awarded to Executive Directors for other positions held by the same on the boards of directors of Group companies.

1.5. Non-monetary benefits

In line with market practice, certain benefits may be enjoyed by Executive Directors, such as insurance cover, also for death and disablement, supplementary health plans, as well as the award of a company car for private and business use, under the conditions envisaged in individual contracts and in the applicable collective contracts.

1.6. General managers and executives with strategic responsibilities

At 15 March 2018, the Group had a General Manager, namely Mr. Stefano Achermann, who holds this position in the Group company Be Consulting S.p.A.

The remuneration of the Executive Directors is generally comprised by a fixed component and a variable component. Executive Directors who are also executives with strategic responsibilities relating to Be or to other Group companies by employment contracts, receive post-employment benefits pursuant to the law, under Art. 2120 of the Italian Civil Code.

1.7. Indemnity for resignation, dismissal or termination of employment contract

As at the date of this Report, as both Chief Executive Officer of Be and Chief Executive Officer and general manager of Be Consulting S.p.A., Mr. Stefano Achermann has entered into a non-competition agreement in the event that his directorship position ends, or his contract of employment is terminated, for whatever reason, unless the same is terminated for just cause and on the initiative of the Company. In the event of the above-mentioned termination of his employment contract, the Company has undertaken to pay him an amount corresponding to one year of fixed salary. For a period of 12 months subsequent to the termination of employment, Mr. Stefano Achermann has undertaken not to personally, or indirectly, or through third parties (whether physical or legal persons) - throughout Italy and in a competitive segment or for a competitor - engage in any form of business activity, an employee or independently, that is identical to, similar to or, in any event, resembles the activities performed during his terms in office as a director and/or employee of the Group. In the event that this non-competition agreement is infringed, the beneficiary must return the above-mentioned amount as a penalty for said action, without prejudice to the Company's right to claim further damages.

Notwithstanding the above, as at the date of this Report, there are no agreements in place between Be and the members of its Board of Directors that envisage the payment of an indemnity in the event of resignation, dismissal and/or revocation without just cause or in any form of termination of the employment contract following a takeover bid.

1.8. Share-based incentive plans

At the date of this Report, no share-based incentive plans are envisaged for Executive or non-executive Directors, or for the head of the internal audit function or the executive in charge of preparing the company's accounting documents.

1.9. Clause for the maintenance of financial instruments in the portfolio

At the date of this Report, the Company has not entered into agreements that envisage clauses for the maintenance of financial instruments in the portfolio after their acquisition.

1.10. Insurance cover, social security or pension arrangements other than mandatory ones

In line with the best market practices, as indicated in paragraph 1.3 above, the Company has drawn up a Directors & Officers policy for the members of the Board of Directors and of the Board of Statutory Auditors.

1.11. Remuneration policy adopted with regard to independent directors and to the performance of specific assignments. Deferred payment systems

At the date of this Report, the Company has not adopted any remuneration policy with regard to independent Directors or directors with specific assignments. Equally, no deferred payment systems are envisaged.

1.12. Executive in charge of preparing the company's accounting documents

The incentive mechanisms in place for the executive in charge of preparing the company's accounting documents reflect the tasks assigned to the same.
