Be signs international “partnership” with Finastra

Be Group has joined the "InFusion Partner programme" of Finastra, one of the largest companies in the world and leader in Financial Services software (www.finastra.com). Thanks to this partnership, Be strengthens its value proposition in the professional services area for European Financial Institutions.

This is an important step - says Stefano Achermann Be Group CEO - that completes our offering of high specialized professional services for the Investment Banking sector. Taking into account the profile and the sizing of our clients, this agreement will open to new international projects, relying on Finastra solutions to support banks' business strategies.

Be Group signed a three year partnership agreement with Finastra with the scope of developing professional services and solutions for the "investment banking" at international scale, with a focus on Italy, the DACH region, the United Kingdom and Poland.

The agreement aims at developing strategic projects in Capital Markets, Treasury and Corporate Banking areas, combining Be business transformation advisory skills with Finastra solutions and products. Be and Finastra will work together immediately to offer
